

THE CAUCASIAN

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

MARION BUTLER, Editor & Proprietary.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
ONE YEAR, $1.00
SIX MONTHS, 50

(Entered at the Post Office at Goldsboro, N.C., as second-class mail matter.)

TOPEKA AND THE NATIONAL ALLIANCE.

The city of Topeka, Kansas, received the Alliance with open arms. Committees met the delegates at every train and conducted them to comfortable quarters. The city and the State Alliance entertained the delegates free of charge. Those who have been to every meeting of the National Alliance say that this session was the most harmonious and business-like one they have ever attended. We were pleasantly surprised to learn that the business men of Topeka largely agree with the Alliance on the financial question.

In another issue we will tell our readers some things we learned on the cars going and returning.

WHAT NEW AMENDMENTS?

Below are three editorials clipped from the Raleigh News-Observer-Chronicle of three different issues. This is the first:

"The election law having been amended in regard to registration so as to secure as far as practicable the identification of the voters, the Third party people are vexing their righteous souls over it. The change dispenses them. They do not like to have the voters identified."

"When a man well known in the community comes along to register, everybody is aware of his right; but when one who is not known to the registrar, asks to have his name placed on the book, it is proper for the law to exact from him a particular account of himself—his name in full; and his former place of residence. Who can object to that in reason?

"It is intended to protect against fraud, and only those who are not disengaged to see frauds perpetrated are opposed to the change."

Hold your breath. Did you ever hear anything like it? "Intended to protect against fraud?" What is? The "new amendments" to the election law. What new amendment? F. M. Simmons' secret circular, which, with the help of a Supreme Court Judge, put new construction on the law. Sam Ashe very innocently asks, "who can object to the provisions of the election law?" Nobody will object to complying with the provisions of the law when they know what is meant and required of all alike. But no citizen now knows what new interpretation may be put on the law and what secret information with the help of the Supreme Court (or rather a part of it) may be sent out to those wearing a certain label before the next election. If we remember correctly the decision of the Supreme Court which was used by Simmons to disenfranchise voters, was filed by the court (Judge Avery preparing the decision) in the spring of 1892. But the decision was not certified to the court below and made public till about the time or after Simmons' secret circular had been prepared and sent out. Was it held back on purpose to give the Democratic machine the use of the information or was it an oversight? The CAUCASIAN would like to hear from Capt. Sam Ashe on this point. But whatever the cause or purpose, the result was the same. Thousands of men were disenfranchised because they did not know the decision of the court. An old man was in THE CAUCASIAN office a few days ago. He said that he had been living in Wayne county on the same farm for forty years and had voted in every election until the last one. When he went to vote Simmons' secret instructions were unanswered by the people at the ballot box next fall. The same influence now controls the People's party that controlled the Alliance Legislature of 1891, in a large degree. That Legislature was progressive in every sense. It established an industrial school for girls, re-established the position of State Geologist, it made an appropriation for the World's Fair and did much to advance the material and industrial interests of the State. Besides it forced much property (owned by "capital") to pay taxes, and herein lies its crime. To the last question asked by The Observer, we will say that the People's party is fighting against the kind of rule—the corner-stone of which is hate." Fighting against such hate and in tolerance" as was shown by The Observer and the Democratic machine during the last campaign—such hate, spite and meanness as was exhibited by the last Legislature—a Legislature of Democrats—of "straight-backs."

The CAUCASIAN would like to hear from Capt. Sam Ashe on this point. But whatever the cause or purpose, the result was the same. Thousands of men were disenfranchised because they did not know the decision of the court. An old man was in THE CAUCASIAN office a few days ago. He said that he had been living in Wayne county on the same farm for forty years and had voted in every election until the last one. When he went to vote Simmons' secret instructions were unanswered by the people at the ballot box next fall. The same influence now controls the People's party that controlled the Alliance Legislature of 1891, in a large degree. That Legislature was progressive in every sense. It established an industrial school for girls, re-established the position of State Geologist, it made an appropriation for the World's Fair and did much to advance the material and industrial interests of the State. Besides it forced much property (owned by "capital") to pay taxes, and herein lies its crime. To the last question asked by The Observer, we will say that the People's party is fighting against the kind of rule—the corner-stone of which is hate." Fighting against such hate and in tolerance" as was shown by The Observer and the Democratic machine during the last campaign—such hate, spite and meanness as was exhibited by the last Legislature—a Legislature of Democrats—of "straight-backs."

The third is like unto it: "Mr. Marion Butler having returned home, we expect that he will let loose the dogs of war in earnest and make Rose howl over the new provisions of the election law, which require a man when he registers to give his full name, tell where he lives and where he came from, etc. Mr. Butler doesn't like those provisions. Their object is to identify the voter."

Will Capt. Ashe tell us when these new provisions" were enacted? If he refers to the information contained in Simmons' secret circular, they will not disenfranchise any voter this year for every legal voter will have his full name registered. But if another new trick is sprung, it may disenfranchise some. The frauds that every honest voter fears most are those that the law does not provide against. Will Capt. Ashe say that the present law is sufficient to prevent frauds—gross frauds?

Subscribe to The Caucasian $1.00 per year.

AN EDITORIAL THAT IS DAISY.

We refer to the following from the Charlotte Observer:

The Alabama Populists declared themselves, in the platform adopted by their State convention last week, in favor of "the development of our material resources," and to that end "invite the investment of capital, pledging the enactment of such laws as will afford encouragement and protection to all legitimate enterprise." It will be time enough for capital to have faith in the laws promised have been enacted. The truth is that this whole Populist movement is a crusade against capital, and capital is not safe in any State in which it has the whip-hand. Who wants to invest any money in South Carolina, for instance? People have gone out of the State because it has been made too hot to hold them, and the situation would be infinitely worse in Alabama if the element which is striving for the mastery there should succeed.

Now in the first place the Charlotte Observer must admit that the declaration in the platform of the Alabama Populists is sound and right. And all right thinking people will say that it ill becomes a man or paper belonging to a party, that has promised everything and has failed to redeem a single pledge, to question the sincerity of the People's party (that has so far kept every pledge to the people) when it makes a declaration and one that is right to the American people.

The Observer says that "It will be time enough to believe the pledges of the laws promised have been enacted." The people are now thinking that they should have judged the Democratic party the same way when it was making such fair promises. But the Democratic party asked for "a chance" to prove that it would do as it promised. The party benchmen are now enjoying the emoluments of a large juice chance, but the people are not in it. They have been betrayed. The People's party now asks for a chance to show that they will carry out their promises, and the people think it fair and best to give that party a chance, than to entrust their welfare again to a party that have violated every pledge.

In the next place, The Observer says that "The People's party is a crusade against capital and that capital is not safe in a State where it has the whip-hand." This is only unfair, but it is untrue. It is only criminal capital that the People's party makes a fight against, just as any good government punishes and restrains the criminal action of any of its citizens. There is a great deal of difference between a citizen who obeys the laws and uses of lamentation and sorrow. The election of the editor of THE CAUCASIAN as

SIMMONS SEES GROVER.

THEY ORGANIZE A REUNION AND SHAKE HANDS OVER THE PUTRIFYING BODY OF THE CHICAGO PLATFORM.

THEY LOVE EACH OTHER FOR THE ENEMIES THEY HAVE MADE IN REPUDIATING DEMOCRACY.

A Startling Report that the People Will Demand Ransom's Resignation as Senator. They Hold Him Responsible for the Repeat of the Sherman Law and the Consequent Distress that Has Followed.—"Steve" Bell, of Alliance Memory, Rewards At Last Appointed Timber Agent at the North—A Felicitous Agent for the Editor of The Caucasian.

(From Our Special Correspondent in Washington.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.—Steve Bell has at last been rewarded for his treachery to the Alliance. He was hired by the Democrats in the last campaign to do their dirty work, but they have been in no great hurry to recognize his "eminent enemies." Dr. Sanderlin and Joe Daniels got their plums early in the fruit season, but Steve has been used as doormat. A few days ago the wires were kept hot in notifying him that he had been appointed timber agent among the Indians in Minnesota, where the weather has a surprising record of twenty below zero and a thrity enterprising population of Chippewas Indians and Polar bears. Failing in their efforts to starve him, the dear Democrats will now try the freezing process, on the irrepressible Gideonite, Ransom, Crawford and Daniels all hired him effusive congratulations, and the next train brought him to Washington. Here he met Bill Long, who went to the Legislature from Warren county by way of illustrating "Simmons' election methods" and they held a reunion. Long told how "Steve" invaded Warren, and by the warts and knots and blisters and corns on his hands proved to the satisfaction of the Warren farmers, that he was their friend and champion. What sort of reception would he get now? some one asked. Long replied that he could safely promise "Steve" a free rail ride out of the country should he be consumed with our irresistible desire to return to Warren during the next campaign. But the Minnesota appointment is the end of "Steve" and the people who knew and estimated him at his true value will soon experience a sensation of lamentation and sorrow. The election of the editor of THE CAUCASIAN as distresses and disgruntles some people here beyond expression. Our Alliance representative from North Carolina, who wears broad-cloth and fine linen, and whose coat tail is just two inches longer than Sibley's—the millionaire Pennsylvanian, who invests his congressional salary in barn yard manure and blooded stock—says "I'll be buried if I know how that fellow Butler fools people so." Manifestly some people who keep up their identification with the Alliance organization for the purpose of terrorizing Democrats when they want Alliance votes, are a little sore over Butler's recognition as a leader. But among the Democratic machine bosses of Kings County, New York, has been tried and convicted for fraud in the late election. The proof was so clear that the party machine could not save him. If he had been a little more careful to cover his tracks in his ballot box stuffing he would now be demanding the position of Collector of Internal Revenue or some other office as pay for his rascality. The sight of Boss McKane behind prison bars ought to be a warning to some of his imitators in North Carolina. In fact if we had an honest election law some of them would now be sharing McKane's fate.

PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL ALLIANCE

Read Dr. Cyrus Thompson's article on the first page in which he defends the "ballot box stuffers."

Also notice the "astonishing statement" which he makes about them being "good men." This article will bear reading twice.

Every few days the daily papers announce that one branch or the other of congress was forced to adjourn for want of a quorum, or at least suspend business till the Sergeant-at-Arms could go out and hunt up about town enough congressmen to make a quorum so business could be transacted. If congress had committed no crimes of commission this alone would be sufficient cause for the people to vote to let these congressmen stay at home hereafter. There are certainly enough good and able men in this country who will attend to the duties of a congressman for $5,000 a year and always be fit for their post. Here is the country suffering for relief, and yet congressmen when not passing laws to make matters worse are off at horse races and other frolics. But indeed the country would be better off if this congress had never met.

SIMMONS SEES GROVER.

A thick set, Jewish-looking, black-mustached little man was pointed out in the hotel lobby as Simmons, the man so much talked about here as a traitor to both the Alliance and the Democratic party. It seems that everybody wants a piece of his scalp. Republicans and Populists accuse him of cheating in the last election; Democrats charge him with treachery in going back on the Chicago platform and then lying about it; Senator Vance seems to have a paramount claim on his head. From all accounts the guillotine is ready for the massacre once Vance says the word. Simmons had just returned from the White House and was surrounded by an eager crowd. All that could be proudest of him was that he said "Grover said that next to his dear Peckham he loved Simmons." Fighting against such hate and in tolerance" as was shown by The Observer and the Democratic machine during the last campaign—such hate, spite and meanness as was exhibited by the last Legislature—a Legislature of Democrats—of "straight-backs."

The third is like unto it: "Mr. Marion Butler having returned home, we expect that he will let loose the dogs of war in earnest and make Rose howl over the new provisions of the election law, which require a man when he registers to give his full name, tell where he lives and where he came from, etc. Mr. Butler doesn't like those provisions. Their object is to identify the voter."

Will Capt. Ashe tell us when these new provisions" were enacted? If he refers to the information contained in Simmons' secret circular, they will not disenfranchise any voter this year for every legal voter will have his full name registered. But if another new trick is sprung, it may disenfranchise some. The frauds that every honest voter fears most are those that the law does not provide against. Will Capt. Ashe say that the present law is sufficient to prevent frauds—gross frauds?

Subscribe to The Caucasian $1.00 per year.

stood, be the opposition candidate, and Hale's friends say that he will mop the district with him.

A STARTLING REPORT

is current here to the effect that petitions are being circulated in the State demanding Senator Ransom's resignation on account of his vote to repeal the Sherman silver law. People everywhere, it is stated, are eager to sign them, and that every day adds hundreds of names to the remonstrance. A North Carolinian here seemingly well informed about Tar Heel politics, says the remonstrance will be unanimous when the people hear that Ransom voted to confirm Peckham's nomination.

JONATHAN EDWARDS.

WHY PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS NOW?

The gold bug press is now urging the administration to proceed with the public buildings and other improvements in the various large cities. They claim that the government ought to give employment to the idle labor. Why is it that these nailing newspapers that have so heartily advocated a gold standard that has brought labor and business to such straits, are now so concerned about the welfare of the laborer? They even favor "paternalism" in the interest of the laborer. We are at the same time told every day that the government is out of money. The people see the trick. These gold bug papers want to get the laborers to demand that the building of public buildings be commenced, and then they will say that which helps them to endure their ills, will bring a better world to come.

In the evening an open meeting was held, at which President Loucks read his annual address. Speeches were also made by Mann Page, of Virginia, and Marion Butler, of North Carolina.

XIV—COL. ROBERT G. INGERSOLL.

Max O'Rell discusses the Famous Infidel. Col. Robert G. Ingersoll has little in common with the rest of his countrymen but the title of colonel. He is a man of about sixty, six feet high and strongly built, a colossus physically and intellectually. The trinity that he worships is the trinity of science: Reason, Observation and Experience.

I never heard Mr. Ingersoll say he did not believe in God. George Sand said that the fanatic loves God to the exclusion of man. The theories of Col. Ingersoll verge upon fanaticism in the sense that they teach the love of mankind to the exclusion of Him who so loved man. The colonel rolls the poor and sorrowing of that which helps them to endure their ills, into a better world to come.

Son a Protestant minister, Robert Ingersoll early showed special aptitude for theological questions. By the age of sixteen, he had thoroughly studied the New Testament and would reason with it like a doctor of divinity. The father in vain drew Robert's attention to the beauties of the Bible; the son could see little in it.

Mr. Ingersoll lives in one of the handsomest houses on Fifth avenue. His family consists of his wife and two lovely daughters, Athens and Venice, as an American whom I met at Col. Ingersoll's used to call them.

Authors, artists, journalists, may be met at the colonel's charming Sunday evenings. About 11 at night, when all but the intimate friends leave, the family lets itself loose, and their favorite subjects, while they listen with avidity. He knows Shakespeare as thoroughly as the Bible. He adores Wagner, whom he sets even above Beethoven. I mention this to prove once more that we have all our little faults.

I was present one evening at a meeting of the Nineteenth Century Club to hear a discussion on "The Poetry of the Future." Col. Ingersoll was to have taken part in it, but was obliged to excuse himself at the eleventh hour. The president immediately telephoned to a well known minister, asking him to take the colonel's place.

* * * * *

THE COMMITTEE ON DEMANDS AND RESOLUTIONS UNANIMOUSLY REPORTED THE FOLLOWING:

THEY ARE USED BY MORE GOOD FARMERS THAN ANY FERTILIZERS SOLD IN THE STATE. WE GUARANTEE THE STANDARD SOIL MAINTAINED.

WE WILL TRY TO KEEP THEM IN STORE AT PROMINENT RAIL ROAD POINTS.

FOR FOUR YEARS NOTHING HAS EQUALLED THEM IN FIELD RESULTS.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET ONLY THE BEST. THE BEST IN THE END IS ALWAYS CHEAPEST.

THE N. C. ALLIANCE FERTILIZERS ARE THE BEST.

FOR FOUR YEARS NOTHING HAS EQUALLED THEM IN FIELD RESULTS.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE LOW AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

WHEN FARM PRODUCTS ARE HIGH AND MONEY SCARCE, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES ON FERTILIZER.

</div

THE CAUCASIAN.
GOLDSBORO, N. C., FEB. 22, '94.

WAYNE COUNTY.

LOOK AT THE LABEL.

On your paper. Do not look for the "blue cross" anymore. We have put our list in mailing type. Your name is on a printed label with the date when your subscription expires. Be sure to send your renewal (if you want the paper another year) at least a week before your subscription expires.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Astasic Electropose Co.—Doctors often fail to cure.

J. W. Lee—Valuable information.

We wish to request our readers when writing to any of the above companies to say that you saw the advertisement in THE CAUCASIAN.

There is real need of the names of our streets at the crossings. Our teachers find it difficult often to learn where pupils live, and it is impossible to direct a stranger in Goldsboro. We doubt if any other towns in North Carolina of equal size—or even half as large—is similarly situated.—Round Table.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger gives the following account of the marriage of Mr. Walter E. Borden, Gold-horn, and Miss Mattie Fuller, of Raleigh, which occurred, Feb. 14. "This afternoon at the residence of Judge Thomas C. Fuller in this city his daughter, Miss Mattie, was married to Mr. Walter E. Borden, assistant cashier of the Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro. There were no attendants. Rev. Dr. Daniel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. All the family of Judge Fuller assembled at the wedding. The Bridal presents were both numerous and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Borden left this afternoon for New York."

Between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock Saturday morning, fire was discovered in the kitchen of the Kennon hotel. The alarm was immediately sounded, and notwithstanding the severe cold, the firemen were prompt to respond to the call and hastened to the scene of action. The fire department did effective work and soon had the blaze under control, and at daybreak entirely extinguished. The flames did no further damage than to the wood work of the kitchen. Certainly a word of praise is but just to the firemen, whose prompt and effective work averted, what might have been, a serious conflagration.

NEW GOLDSBORO ADVERTISERS.
Messrs. Best & Thompson, at the "double store," call your attention to their several lines of fertilizers. They are reliable business men and you can depend upon their guarantee. They also carry line of shoes, dry goods, a full line of groceries. Call to see them.

A WEEK'S NEWS

GATHERED FROM EVERY QUARTER OF THE WORLD

And Briefly Told for the Readers of The Caucasian.

Killed His Daughter's Lover.

A special to the Ashville Citizen from Marshall, says Willis Morgan, a brother of Deputy Sheriff Jesse Morgan, of Buncombe county, was shot and instantly killed at Marshall, Madison county, by G. R. Sims, a brother-in-law of M. E. Carter, collector of internal revenue for this district. Willis Morgan was courting Sims' daughter and had been ordered off the place. He persisted last night in forcing himself upon the premises of Sims with the result stated.

New Supreme Court Justice.
President Cleveland on Monday nominated Senator White, of Louisiana, for Associate Justice of the United States. The Senate which had just refused to confirm Hornblower and Peckham at once confirmed the nomination. White is a gold bug and one of the "cuckoo" Senators.

Peckham Rejected.
Wm H. Peckham nominated by the President for Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court has met the fate of Hornblower. The Senate on last Friday rejected the nomination by a vote of 41 to 32. Senator Ransom of course voted with the "cuckoos."

A Mistake.
Judge Read, of Raleigh, still lives. THE CAUCASIAN is glad to announce that he is improving. The announcement of his death in last issue was a mistake.

Governor Carr has ordered a special term of Cumberland Superior Court, for criminal cases only, to begin April 16th, Judge Bryan to preside.

Boss McKane, the ballot-box stuffing, of Brooklyn, N. Y., gets six years in the penitentiary.

JONATHAN EDWARDS'
CORRESPONDENCE.

(Special to THE CAUCASIAN)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16th.—Cleveland was in Thomas Benton's mind when he said, nearly sixty years ago:

"We must look forward to the time when the public revenues will be doubled, when the civil and military officers of the Federal Government will be quadrupled, when its influence over individuals will be multiplied to an indefinite extent, when the nomination of a President can carry any man through the Senate, and his recommendation can carry any measure through the two houses of congress, when the principle of public action will be reduced to this: The President wants my vote and I want his patronage. I will vote as he wishes and he will give me the offices I wish for. What will this be but the government of one man?"

From the beginning of his administration what has been Cleveland's methods but the highwayman's demand of stand and deliver. Hardly has an appointment been made that was not inspired by petty revenge or was the result of a bargain. It has been the rule of the administration to reward "traitors" and "renegades." It has been the brutal policy of the administration to resent and defy democratic opinion. When the Senate rejected Hornblower's nomination for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, it was expected that a halt would be called in the administration's autocratic policy; but far from it. Peckham's nomination immediately followed. Besides being notoriously unfit, his integrity was successfully assailed; it was clearly established that he had bolted the Democratic nomination in New York; that he had organized an opposition movement; that a powerful railroad lobby was urging his confirmation. It was indisputably shown that he is a bad-tempered, ill-bred, coarse man. Yesterday, after a two days' executive session, the Senate rejected his nomination by the decisive vote of 32 to 41. As analyzed the vote shows that 23 Democrats were bribed or otherwise influenced to vote for confirmation. Among this number is found the name M. W. Ransom. Vance, being absent, paired with a Republican, and is recorded as voting his convictions. To any one else but Cleveland such a defeat would be humiliating, but it will make very little impression on him. The next nomination may be still more obnoxious. No doubt Thomas Benton turned in his grave when the vote was taken yesterday on the Peckham nomination.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

How this will affect his desperate efforts to save Simmons is the question that now agitates his powerful mind. He must see in the anti-administration vote the utter hopelessness of Simmons' case, and all the talk about "Simmons' feeling absolutely safe" is the veriest bluster and bluff. Such statements can serve one purpose and that is to mislead and deceive those who may aspire to succeed him. As "these heavy lines" are written, he is "dead cock in the pit." Reports affecting Senator Simmons' health and the statement in circulation here that he will simply submit a protest against Simmons, may be put down as utterly groundless. He claims that he was defrauded out of the election before. The people of Alabama will not submit to ballot-box stuffing this time.

Renfrew F. Kolb, who has been nominated for Governor of Alabama by the People's party, will surely carry the State from present indications. He claims that he was defrauded out of the election before. The people of Alabama will not submit to ballot-box stuffing this time.

Ransom stands between Simmons and resignation. A suggestion from him and his resignation, which has already been prepared, would go instantly to the President. But he knows too well what such a step means to him. It makes his re-election the Democratic issue in the State, and it is this above all things he most devoutly hopes to avoid. Delay can do no harm. It may offer the possibility of extrication. By some cruel fatality he may yet win. Not an entirely unexpected event would change the aspect of things. It would fill the State with mourning and lamentation, but it would mean success to the "machine." Its manipulators are eager to rally the New Bern Fair is in progress this week. The State's Chicago exhibit arrived there and was arranged in its allotted place last Thursday. It is a unique fair and attracting wide attention.

Progressive Farmer please copy. J. D. MEARS,
Lecturer Wilson County Alliance.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Reading notices will be inserted in this column for 10 cents per line for each insertion.

MULES AND HORSES AT A GREAT SACRIFICE.

The remainder of my Mules and Horses I will sell at a great sacrifice. Come at once and save money.

ASHER EDWARDS.

Any one wishing to purchase Mules for cash or on time, I will sell you from $20.00 to $25.00 a head.

Feb. 8-31.] JOSEPH EDWARDS.

A good milk cow for sale. Address B. C., care CAUCASIAN office.

around Ransom and make "bossism" the machine battle-ery in the next election, but the "boss" sees the madness of such a disastrous policy. To prevent such an issue is now the one engrossing thought that disturbs and disquiets him. Anxiety and perplexity are whitening his beard and deepening the lines in his dark, sombre face. Mortal man is hardly equal to the load he is now carrying with such a jaunty air of indifference.

Alabama initiates the Populist movement in the nomination of Kolb as the People's candidate for Governor. Col. Crandall, editor of the National View, who was present, says the convention was a magnificent vindication of popular rights. Its spirit and personnel, he says, was a grand inspiration which will nerve and enthuse the movement to a splendid victory. He confidently predicts that Kolb will sweep the State by an overwhelming vote. Alabama Democrats here who can be induced to discuss the situation at all, say that a halt would be called in the Democratic ticket. The repeal of the Sherman law, and the Democratic policy of free iron and free coal, leaves the party not an inch of fighting ground. What they most deplore and dread is the overshadowing issue of honest elections. They fully realize that the people are no longer to be trifled with in this vital matter.

Democratic congressmen have already surrendered. Oates, seeing a re-election impossible, offers to sacrifice himself as the Democratic candidate for Governor. It will be a red-hot campaign to the finish and besides the election of Kolb, it is predicted that the result will retire the entire congressional delegation. The People's leaders are able and courageous men and the rank and file of the movement is enthusiastic and determined.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement.

The Peckham business and the appointment of postmasters at Durham, Reidsville, Concord; the renewal of the collector of customs at Wilmington and the appointment of Consul General at Shanghai, was simply a coincidence, of course. These appointments had been "hung up" for months, and only a few days previous, inquiry at the State Department indicated that the Shanghai appointment had been slated for another State. The collector of customs at Wilmington was removed without cause. People enjoy the right to apply their own construction to the facts. Bad as Peckham is, unfit as he is, bolter and disorganizer as he was shown to be, doubt it was Ransom's purpose to vote with the Administration for his confirmation, without regard to the coincident patronage mentioned. His name stands conspicuously on the "black list" and doubtless he glories in the achievement

Young Folks' Post Office.

Bethel, N. C., Feb. 12th, '94.

Mr. Editor:—I'll not say anything about my age as that is intended for the girls who don't mind telling their age, but as I am deeply interested in the young folks' column, will ask a few questions as I thought I might put some else thinking a little more, or as much as I can, about the week, on some of the questions asked.

Questions.—Where was Sarah buried and how old was she when she died? What was Abraham's second wife's name? Will some one tell the burial places of all the Apostles? How many verses in the Old Testament and in the New Testament? How many times does the word "Jehovah" occur in the Bible?

Answer.—Jefferson said of James Monroe, "If his son were turned inside out, not a spot would be found on it."

For fear of the waste basket, will close by saying, work for THE CAUCASIAN.

Alice V. Carson.

Burgaw, N. C., Feb. 10, 1894.

Mr. Editor:—I think you are very kind in giving the young folks' corner so they can write for each other's amusement and instruction, so I will write a little letter but am afraid my miserable script will find its way to the waste basket. I am going to school and I love my teacher and will do all in my power to please him. I will send you a charade that will give his name and I want some little cousin to tell it:

My 1st is in head but not in brain,
My 2nd is in hand but not in brain,
My 3rd is in necessity but not in year,
My 4th is in day but not in year,
My 5th is in evening but not in night,
My 6th is in both wrong and right,
My 7th is in song but not in tune,
My 8th is not in mudday but is in noon,

My 9th is in night but not in day,
My 10th is in cheerfulness but not in play,
My 11th is in old but not in new,
My 12th is in boil but not in stew,
And my last you will find at the end of time.

I will close by saying hurrah for THE CAUCASIAN and its noble editor, Robert W. Player.

Columbia, N. C., Feb. 4, '94.

Mr. Editor:—As I have not seen any letter in the children's corner from this county I will write a short one. I am a girl fourteen years old. I delight in going to school, my favorite study history and next geography.

I have two brothers, one thirteen and the other eleven years old. They both go to school; the oldest is very fond of arithmetic. Paper has been taking your paper about one year. I like the "Young folks' postoffice" very much, but I am afraid my letter will go in the waste basket, if it does not I will answer W. T. Gardner's question. The Sahara is the largest desert in the world; it reaches from the Atlantic Ocean on the west to the Nile on the east, and is nearly two-thirds the size of the United States.

Questions.—Of what do the Japanese make their houses?

How did the natives of Venezuela originally build their houses?

Where do many of the people live in boats?

In what zone are the most powerful and intelligent nations found?

What were General Wolfe's last words?

Answers.—Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness.

Jacob was John's grandfather.

Success to THE CAUCASIAN.

Yours truly,

Aline Owens.

PEOPLE'S PARTY CLUBS.

The rules and regulations for governing the organization of the People's Party Club are as follows:

First. There shall be neither fees, dues, signs, grips, pass-words, or obligations in a Club.

Second. Clubs may be started in any locality by any reputable person, and organize with five or more members.

Third. The meetings of the clubs shall be public. Those who are not members should be invited to attend. Those who attend should be urged to join.

Fourth. The conditions of membership shall be opposition to the financial policy of the Greenback and the Democratic party and a promise to vote with the People's Party to secure a legislature next fall that will give the people a free ballot and fair count.

Fifth. Each club shall have a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. In all other matters each club may make its own rules and regulations.

Sixth. As soon as a club is organized the Secretary should fill out the following blank and send it to Marion Butler, Goldsboro, N. C.

PEOPLE'S PARTY CLUB.

County.....

Township.....

Name of Club.....

No. of Members.....

President .....

P. O. ....

Secretary .....

Write very plain the names and postoffice address of the President and Secretary. I will send a communication for consideration at the second meeting of your club.

MARION BUTLER,
Chairman People's Party State Ex. Com.
State papers please copy.

HOUSEHOLD ACCIDENTS.

The Proper Treatment of Slight Wounds and Scratches.

A slight cut or abrasion of the hand, or a slight burn, may become a serious matter if it is totally neglected. Where the skin is torn or cut, it is desirable in the first place that the wound should bleed freely. Cases of lockjaw are rare occurrence where this is the case, and a very slight wound of the hand has been known to produce this dangerous malady where bleeding did not follow.

One of the greatest dangers lies in a wound of a kitchen knife, which may have held impure matter, and even from the scratch of a pin, and fatal cases of blood-poisoning have frequently resulted from so simple a wound. A sharp knife is a dangerous instrument, especially if it becomes dull. After the wound has bled a little it should be washed with perfectly clean water. That which has been boiled is best for the purpose, and there is no harm in using a little carbolic acid in the proportion of a drop or two to a quart of water.

When a cut is made, it is necessary to wash it with perfectly clean water. That which has been boiled is best for the purpose, and there is no harm in using a little carbolic acid in the proportion of a drop or two to a quart of water.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

PHOTOGRAPH CASES.

A Novelty Which Is Easily Made and Very Pretty.

What shall be done with the photographs which are yearly on the increase?

There have been albums and photograph cases and bags, both small and great, in which to deposit them, and still they accumulate.

A pretty idea for a photograph case is to take a piece of cardboard of any size desired, and cover plainly with pink silk. Cover another piece slightly smaller, as in drawing, joining it to the first, and still another piece

EASILY MADE AND PRETTY.

Z. B. VANCE.

SIMMONS' REPLY.

Mr. Simmons has written a long and wordy letter in reply. We haven't room for it, but to do him justice we clip the following from the Winston Sentinel, a Democratic paper and one favorable to Simons, which gives a statement of his side of the case:

SENATOR VANCE

WRITES A LETTER TO THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN.

He Is Opposed to the Confirmation of Mr. Simons and Gives His Reasons for It.

[By Southern Associated Press.]

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 8.—The Citizen printed today a letter from Senator Vance which was drawn out by a letter the Citizen addressed him February 1st asking him whether he had preferred any charges against Mr. Simons and also as to his present attitude towards his confirmation. The reply just received is as follows:

TAMPA BAY HOTEL, Tampa, Fla.,
Feb. 5, 1894.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed no charge against Simons. Aside from those which may have been filed by others, my attitude toward him is one of opposition, for the reason that as chairman of the Democratic committee of North Carolina he came to Washington and interfered in opposition to my recommendation for appointments under the government. Knowing that Mr. Ransom and I had agreed that primarily I should recommend all appointments in the West, whilst Gen. Ransom did the same in the East; and knowing that I had recommended Mr. Gudger for collector in my own district, and that General Ransom opposed Mr. Gudger on personal grounds and favored Mr. Elias, he perverted and misused the power intrusted to him by the Democracy of North Carolina, by urging and securing the appointment of Mr. Elias over Mr. Gudger. He also opposed my recommendation of Mr. Hale for a foreign appointment, which was virtually secured and was higher in grade than any given the Senate. Now, if he thought proper to volunteer his interference where he had no right or authority, to do so, he should not object to the exercise of an undoubted right, by a senator in the selection of appointments bestowed upon him by the constitution. To save trouble to anonymous scribblers who are constantly slandering me in this regard and who report him as speaking of himself as "Simmons and the Democratic party" I announce once for all, that I resent not only Simons' interference with my rights, as a Senator, but the insulting and defiant tone assumed both by him and them. I shall oppose Mr. Simons' confirmation on personal as well as public grounds, grounds connected with his unfitness to hold the position for which he has been appointed.

A simple healing plaster which may be made in the household can be made of half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when need be and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

Editor The Citizen: In answer to your letter of the first, I have this to say: You know that in all transactions connected with the executive sessions of the Senate, including what is said and done in committee, therefore only to speak to you about my own attitude towards Mr. Simons what has not been done, etc., but not as to what has been done or probably will be done. I want to say, first that for myself and on my authority I have filed